Annex I
Terms of Reference and Scope of Services

Annex II
Consultant's Reporting Obligations

Annex III Confidentiality Agreement

This CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT forms part of the agreement it is attached to (the "Agreement") Annex III.

Both the Centre and the Contractor may disclose information to one another which they each desire that the other hold in confidence in accordance with the terms of this CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT and the Agreement. As a result, the parties agree that:

1. Except as otherwise provided in this CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT, the party receiving confidential information (the "Recipient") will neither:

- (a) release to any person other than its employees, officers and directors, agents, auditors, consultants, advisors and legal counsel who, without compromising the disclosure of information required for employees' normal use of internal information systems, need to know such information for the purpose of fulfilling the terms and conditions of the Agreement (it being understood that such persons shall be informed of the confidential nature of such information and shall be directed to treat such information in accordance with the terms of this CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT and the Agreement); nor
- (b) use in any manner not connected with the Agreement, any non-public information, received from the party disclosing confidential information (the "Disclosing Party") pertaining to the Agreement (including any documentation, spreadsheets, correspondence, memoranda, notes, analyses or financial data and including information provided in electronic form or by oral communication) which is legibly marked or otherwise clearly identified by the Disclosing Party, either in writing or verbally (including by electronic means) as confidential at the time of its receipt by the Recipient ("Confidential Information").

2. The Recipient shall exercise in relation to the Confidential Information no lesser security measures and degree of care than that which a commercial corporation acting reasonably under similar circumstances would exercise in relation to its own confidential information.

3. This CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT shall not apply to any Confidential Information which is:
- (a) disclosed by a Party or its Representatives pursuant to the requirements of law, regulation, or instruments thereunder or in connection with any legal proceedings;
 - (b) disclosed by a Party or its Representatives pursuant to the requirements of the Centre's international commitments;
 - (c) requested by any governmental agency or other regulatory authority (including any self-regulatory organization having or claiming to have jurisdiction);
 - (d) in the public domain at the time of its disclosure, or subsequently made available to the general public by a person other than the Recipient, or by the Recipient, but only to the extent that in making such information public, the Recipient was not in breach of this Agreement;
 - (e) independently developed by the Recipient;
 - (f) already in the possession of the Recipient at the time of its disclosure by the Disclosing Party to the Recipient under this Agreement;
 - (g) disclosed to the Recipient (or substantially identical to information disclosed to the Recipient) by a source other than the Disclosing Party, provided that the source of information is not known to the Recipient to be bound by any obligations of confidentiality which prohibit disclosure of such information;
 - (h) used or disclosed by the Recipient with the prior written approval of the Disclosing Party; or
 - (i) required to be disclosed pursuant to the Centre's Disclosure Policy. Nothing in this CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT shall prohibit the Centre's disclosure, following the signing of the Agreement, of the following information: the name of the Contractor Firm, the amount of the total fees paid by the Centre's to the Contractor under the Agreement; and a general description of the Services and Deliverables;

and any such information shall be deemed not to be Confidential Information for the purpose this CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT; provided that if any portion of the Confidential Information falls within any one of the above exceptions, the remainder of such Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the prohibitions and restrictions set forth in Section 1.

4. Specific items and details of Confidential Information shall not be deemed to be within any of the exceptions in Section 3 only because such item or detail is generally referred to in more general information that falls within such exception.
5. The parties consent to the Recipient's non-exclusive use of e-mail and any other electronic means of transmission for any disclosure of Confidential Information that is allowed by the terms of this CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT and agree that unauthorized third party interception of Confidential Information so transmitted will not constitute a breach of the Recipient's obligations under this CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT. For greater certainty, this Section is not intended to limit disclosure by any other means.

6. The Recipient shall be responsible only for direct damages caused to the Disclosing Party by any disclosure of Confidential Information in breach of this CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT. The Disclosing Party shall not be entitled to recover from the Recipient any amount on account of any indirect, special or consequential damages as a result of any action or failure to act under or in respect of this CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT.
7. The parties agree that the party which has suffered or would suffer by the breach of this CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT by the other, may, subject to applicable law, be entitled to immediate equitable relief, including injunction and specific performance, as remedies for any such breach. Such remedies shall, subject to applicable law, not be deemed to be the exclusive remedies available for any such breach but shall be in addition to all other remedies available at law or in equity. By entering into this Agreement, the Centre is not waiving any rights which it may have pursuant to applicable law.
8. All documents, drawing, spreadsheets, data and writings (including electronic materials) disclosing Confidential Information and all copies thereof shall be returned promptly by the Recipient upon receipt of a written request from the Disclosing Party or at any time by the Recipient in its discretion and any copies that have been made will (subject to the requirements of applicable law and internal audit purposes in the case of which the terms of this CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT shall continue to apply to the Confidential Information not so dealt with) be destroyed in accordance with the Recipient's procedure for destruction of similar confidential material; however, the undertakings set forth in this section shall not apply to Confidential Information furnished to the Centre in connection with transactions entered into by the Centre including any financing, insurance or other arrangements whatsoever. The Parties' obligation to protect Confidential Information in accordance with this CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT shall survive such return or destruction of the Confidential Information.
9. This CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT constitutes the entire understanding and agreement of the Parties relating to the protection of Confidential Information. No rights or obligations other than those expressly recited herein are to be implied from this Agreement, or otherwise, and the Parties, to the extent permitted by the governing law of this CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT, agree that this CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT shall be the sole and exclusive source of their rights against each other in relation to Confidential Information.
10. This CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT may be terminated at any time by mutual agreement of the parties and unless earlier terminated, this CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT shall expire three (3) years from the Effective Date. On a single occasion, at any time before its expiration or termination, either party may extend this CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT for one year by written notice (by electronic means or otherwise) to the other party, which notice shall be effective upon receipt.

The parties hereto have each executed this CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT by their respective duly authorized officers.
